Webinar on "Creating a Website Using Google Sites"

April 18, 2020 (10am to 11am)

Report

Readers Club conducted a webinar session on "Creating a Website Using Google Sites" on April 18, 2020 at 10am by suing ZOOM app. Dr.Sundar, Librarian, Thiagarajar College of Preceptors, Madurai acted as a resource person and demonstrated the open tool "Google Sites" for creating a website. 72 academicians from various Colleges and Universities participated the programme and gave ta positive feedback on the session. Academicians think that creating a website is very difficult and need IT skills or IT support from the expert. But the reality now a day is open source readymade software, Content Management System, open tool like Google Sites are available to create a website and blogs for personal and organizational purpose.

Institute of Management Technology -Dubai	Librarian	Excellent and this session was too informative ..... If you provide certificate for attendees it will be use useful.
JSS Shri Manjunatheshwara College of Education, Dharwad, Karnataka	Principal	The session was very good. More of, it includes developing skill required for all the teaching professionals to meet the needs of the present digital era. I am very sure, as an outcome of the session, a minimum of fifty per cent and above faculty will go further for creating their own website or for educational purposes. I'm already working on it. Personally, I am very grateful for you and your institution for creating a platform for me and everyone to expose and enrich our knowledge on websites.
Srimad Andavan Arts & Science College,Trichy	Student	Need this kind of session
Highways Research Station	Librarian	Very informative
Central University,Kerala	Research Scholar	Ought to have given participation certificate. Well done. Best wishes.

Indian Institute of Management Ranchi, Jharkand	Librarian	Informative and commendable. Best wishes Dr. sundar
Netaji Subhash University Jamshedpur, Jharkand	Librarian	Real time beneficial and well demonstrated...only the distractions from the participants made it a bit chaos. Overall very nice and more such sessions should be conducted after covid 19 also.it should not be limited upto covid 19.thank you sir ...
Annammal College of Education for Women, Tuticorin	Teaching Faculty	Very informative and useful. Will provide e-certificate for participants?
V.O.C.College of Education, Tuticorin	Teaching Faculty	Excellent session was very usefully. Clear understanding sir. Thank you very much sir
Alagappa University College of Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi	Teaching Faculty	Very informative and if the recorded material is given then it will be more useful to clarify the doubts while doing it.
The Gandhigram Rural Institute Deemed to be University, Dindigul	Research Scholar	Very nice
N.V.K.S.D. College of Education, Attoor, Kanyakumari	Student teacher	I learned a new thing today through this webinar. In this digital era, this kind of knowledge is necessary for a prospective teacher. Today I updated myself . I eagerly waiting for your upcoming webinars also.
